Biography

Colleen believes that there is great potential waiting to be discovered and unleashed within every individual. There are new possibilities to be imagined, and new directions to be set for success.

Colleen coaches, trains and facilitates leaders, teams and organizations to succeed and achieve the greatness that lies within them. With a leadership and coaching career spanning more than 20 years, she has led leadership forums and workshops for diverse participants utilizing tools such as World Café, Open Space Conference, and The Talk Show, to name a few. One of the highlights was leading forums with the World Business and Executive Coaches Summit.

Before shifting her career into Professional Coaching and Training, Colleen gained invaluable experience in a Regional Operations role in a large, complex organization where she was responsible for managing multiple projects in an ever-changing environment. She continues to coach and train leaders and in Fortune 500 companies, Government, Education, Health Care and Non-Profit Sectors.

Colleen is a Professional Certified Coach with seven coaching certifications in systemic leadership coaching, group and team coaching, neuroscience, positive psychology, cognitive psychology, and neurolinguistic programming and a degree in Organizations. Always looking to support her community and advanced learning, she holds memberships with; International Coaches Federation, Canadian Human Resources Professionals and the Institute of Coaching.

She enjoys partnering with leaders, and up and coming leaders at the Canadian Centre for Advanced Leadership in Business, Co-facilitating a Leadership Community of Practice to meet the challenges of the 21st century and gives back to the community by volunteering with the Calgary Stampede.
